

Dry Bones

Although the common definition of "leaven" is the fermentation process by which bread and cakes rise, the halakha, Rabbinic definition and explanation, is more precise. The criteria for the occurrence of leavening [or khimutz] are as follows:

Leavening only occurs in five species of grain (dagan): wheat, barley, rye, oat and spelt.

Wheat germ contains four enzymes:

1. B-Amylase -- breaks down polysaccharides into maltose.
2. α-Amylase -- breaks down disaccharides into glucose.
3. Oxidase -- causes "rising" of the dough.
4. Protemase -- breaks down protein molecules, causing the foul odor associated with decomposition.

- The B-Amylase is missing in the corn and rice. Thus, the leavening process cannot take place, since no carbon dioxide gas is released.
- This also explains how wine can be kosher, since it is the product of fermentation, but fermentation of grapes. Also why Kefir is acceptable, since it's the fermentation of milk.

Lev 23.9-10 ADONAI said to Moshe,
"Tell the people of Isra'el, 'After you enter the land I am giving you and harvest its ripe crops, you are to bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest to the cohen.

[Firstfruits also used of Shavuot/Pentecost. First of the wheat. This is firstfruits of the barley.]

Lev 23.11-12 He is to wave the sheaf before ADONAI, so that you will be accepted; the cohen is to wave it on the day after the Shabbat. On the day that you wave the sheaf, you are to offer a male lamb without defect, in its first year, as a burnt offering for ADONAI.

Luke 24.12-16 Kefa got up and ran to the tomb. Stooping down, he saw only the burial cloths and went home wondering what had happened. That same day, [Yom Bikkurim/Firstfruits] two of them were going toward a village about seven miles from Yerushalayim called Amma'us, and they were talking with each other about all the things that had happened.

Luke 24.12-16 As they talked and discussed, Yeshua himself came up and walked along with them, but something kept them from recognizing him...

Lk 24.25-27 He said to them, "Foolish people! So unwilling to put your trust in everything the prophets spoke! Didn't the Messiah have to die like this before entering his glory?" Then, starting with Moshe and all the prophets, he explained to them the things that can be found throughout the Tanakh concerning himself.

Ps 149: “Let them praise his name with dancing, make melody to him with tambourine and lyre . . . Let the high praises of G-d be in their throats, but a two-edged sword in their hands to carry out vengeance on the nations and punishment on the peoples, to bind their kings with chains and put their nobles in irons...”

Jeremiah/Yermiyahu 31.13 “Then the virgin will dance for joy, young men and old men together; for I will turn their mourning into joy, comfort and gladden them after their sorrow.”
G-d is comforting the people of Israel together.”

Luke 4. 17-21 He was given the scroll of the prophet Yesha`yahu [Isaiah]. Unrolling the scroll, he found the place where it was written, "The Spirit of ADONI is upon me; therefore he has anointed me to announce Good News to the poor; he has sent me to proclaim freedom for the imprisoned and renewed sight for the blind, to release those who have been crushed, to proclaim a year of the favor of ADONI ."

Luke 4. 17-21 After closing the scroll and returning it to the shammash, he sat down; and the eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fixed on him. He started to speak to them: "Today, as you heard it read, this passage of the Tanakh was fulfilled!"

Turkey's Prime Minister, Recep Erdogan, who laid a grave charge at Israel, accusing it – incredibly – of causing the recent protests and unrest in Egypt and of engineering Egyptian President Mohammed Morsi's overthrow.

A British MP, George Galloway, voiced a unique twist on the “Blame Israel” game: apparently, he claims, it was Al-Qaida, not Syrian President Bashar al-Assad, who gassed hundreds of civilians – with the help of guess who – the Jewish state. (His lunacy of claiming that Israel cooperates with the Islamist terrorist organization Al-Qaida was never explained.)

In 2010, a regional Egyptian official blamed Israel for a deadly shark attack on a German tourist.

(Apparently Israelis were supposed to have nefariously placed the shark in the ocean for this very purpose.)

Yeshayahu/Isaiah 54:4 Don't be afraid, for you won't be ashamed; don't be discouraged, for you won't be disgraced. You will forget the shame of your youth, no longer remember the dishonor of being widowed.

Yeshayahu/Isaiah 45.16-17 The idol-makers will be ashamed, disgraced, all of them; they will go dishonored together. But Isra'el, saved by ADONI with an everlasting salvation, you will never, ever, be ashamed or disgraced.

NAS Like a sparrow in its flitting, like a swallow in its flying, So a curse without cause does not alight.

I agree with Avner that the 4 Blood Moons hoopla is unbiblical sensationalism. The Scriptures do not associate blood moons with eclipses, which are natural, predictable events, but with earth-shaking cataclysms. In Rev. 6:12–13, “the whole moon became like blood; and the stars of the sky fell to the earth.” Stars falling to the earth are not associated with eclipses.

The ancients...were familiar with eclipses. Isaiah 13:10, 50:3, Ezek. 32:7; Joel 2:10; Matt 24:29, etc., all describe stars and sun going dark. Alluded to the plague of darkness in Egypt. (total darkness; also earthquakes or desolations ...generally associated with the Day of the Lord and the judgment of the nations, not historical events in Israel. Glenn Blank, Mes.
