

Love: Feb 9, 2019

[credit: Rick Fischer]

Holidays that we participate in:

Jewish holidays

1. Purim
2. Pesakh*
3. Shavuot*
4. Tisha B'Av
5. Rosh * HaShana
6. Yom Kippur*
7. Sukkot*
8. Shmini Atzeret*
9. Simkhat Torah
10. Hanukkah

*means from Vayikra/ Lev 23

Plus, as Messianics, we celebrate

11. Messiah's Birthday [during Sukkot]
12. Messiah's Resurrection [Firstfruits]

With modern Israel, there is

13. Israel Independence Day
14. Israel Memorial Day
15. Holocaust Memorial Day

We keep kind of busy partying, or mourning!

We DON'T do Valentine's Day

Nevertheless, love is a very important scriptural theme.

[Much of the following from Neil and Jamie Lash, <http://www.jewishjewels.org/blog/love-god-love-your-neighbor/>]

<sup>1</sup> Cor. 13.4-8 Love is patient and kind, not jealous, not boastful, not proud, rude or selfish, not easily angered, and it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not gloat over other people's sins but takes its delight in the truth. Love always bears up, always trusts, always hopes, always endures. Love never ends.

[#1]

Mark 12.28-31 One of the Torah scholars came and heard them debating. Seeing that Yeshua had answered them well, he asked Him, “Which commandment is first of all?” Yeshua answered, “The first is,

שְׁמַע יִשְׂרָאֵל יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ יְיָ אֶחָד

Sh'ma Yees-ra-ayl Ah-do-ni E-lo-hay-nu Ah-do-ni eh-khad

Hear O Israel ADONI is our G-d ADONI is one

וְאַהֲבַת אֵת יְיָ אֱלֹהֶיךָ בְּכָל-לִבְבְּךָ

V'a-hav-ta et Ah-do-ni Eh-lo-heh-kha b'khawl l'vav'kha

וּבְכָל-נַפְשְׁךָ וּבְכָל-מְאֹדְךָ

Oov'khawl naf-sh'kha oov'khawl m'o-deh-kha

[Yeshua gives an imprecise, midrashic translation. Adds a word. He's entitled to. He is the Word. Everything He says is the Word.]

Mark 12.28-31 And you shall love Adoni your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.'

The second is this...

וְאַהֲבַת לְרֵעֶךָ כְּמוֹךָ

V'a-hav-tah l'rey-ah-kha kha-mo-kha

And you shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these.”

[#2]

The Shema, above, as a declaration of faith, a pledge of allegiance to the One True God, and a command to love Him, is the first prayer that children are taught, and the last utterance of martyrs.

[Much of the following from Neil and Jamie Lash, <http://www.jewishjewels.org/blog/love-god-love-your-neighbor/>

Rabbinic Judaism agrees with the dual duty of love ...]

Love of God is not considered the epitome of Jewish living. Even more important, as mentioned in A Code of Jewish Ethics Volume 1 by Rabbi Joseph Telushkin, is the love of one's neighbor. Why? Because the love of one's neighbor is seen as a measure of one's love of God. What matters most to God? According to Rabbi Akiva (Jerusalem Talmud, Nedarim 9:4), “Love your neighbor as yourself; this is the major principle of the Torah.”

[#3]

In the Jewish mind, there is an equation, and equal quantities on each side of an equal sign. Love God = Love your neighbor.

[With this perspective, many of us might not love God as much as we think we do. First of all, God is much easier to love than people.]

The Messianic Scriptures similarly link love of God and love of one's neighbor. “If someone says, ‘I love God,’ and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen? And this commandment we have from Him: that he who loves God must love his brother also” (1 Jn. 4:20-21).

[#4]

“You shall love your neighbor as yourself” appears in the Bible for the first time in Leviticus 19:18. The verse ends with, Ani Adoni.” It is as if God signs His signature to the command to love one’s neighbor as oneself, to give it special emphasis.

A non-Jew, who wanted to be converted to Judaism, approached the great Rabbi Hillel and asked if he could teach him the entire Torah while he stood on one foot. Hillel, standing on one foot, responded: “What is hateful unto you, do not do to your neighbor. This is the whole Torah! All the rest is commentary. Now, go and study” (Shabbat 31a).

[#5]

Hillel lived in the century before Yeshua.]

Irene Lipson, in The Greatest Commandment, mentions some Hebrew concepts connected with compassion. The first is Li-fenim mi-shurath ha-din

לְפָנִים מִשׁוֹרֵת הַדִּין
beyond the letter of the law

This means that a person concedes something that is rightfully theirs in favor of someone whose need is greater. Sacrificial love.

Messiah teaches this, even more dramatically:

[<http://www.jewishjewels.org/blog/love-god-love-your-neighbor/>]

Mtt 5.39-41 If someone hits you on the right cheek, let him hit you on the left cheek too! If someone wants to sue you for your shirt, let him have your coat as well! And if a soldier forces you to carry his pack for one mile, carry it for two!

[#6]

What can you or I do that is beyond what is required?]

Another Hebrew concept is Gemilut Hasadim, Acts of Love.

charity, benevolence גְּמִילוּת חֶסֶדִים

Doing something only out of a sense of duty is not Gemilut Hasadim. A good deed must be performed in a spirit of love and compassion.

[#7]

Examples: visiting the sick, helping the poor, providing for widows and orphans, and providing a wedding for a poor bride.

[<http://www.jewishjewels.org/blog/love-god-love-your-neighbor/>]

It is of the utmost importance to attend a funeral, accompanying the dead to the grave. This is regarded as an act of pure love because it is the only mitzvah (good deed) where the recipient can never reciprocate!”

There still remains the question of who exactly is “our neighbor.” For traditional Jews, the “stranger” גֵּר Ger, definitely falls into this category. The Torah is clear on this: “The stranger who dwells among you [Ger toshav] shall be to you as one born among you, and you shall love him as yourself; for you were strangers [gerim] in the land of Egypt: I am the Adoni your God” (Lev. 19:34).

Aside from the stranger, the term “neighbor” in Jewish tradition does not apply to all people indiscriminately.

Yeshua’s Jewish audience would, therefore, be shocked, maybe even repulsed, by “You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. But I say to you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you.’” (Matt. 5:43-44).

[#8

I attended a lecture at Union Station on the Dead Sea Scrolls, when they were on traveling exhibit. The lecturer said that this is one shocking difference between Yeshua and Judaism. Whose authority was Yeshua citing? Proof of deity.

Think of someone you are irritated by, or is a serious enemy. Good one to bless.]

A law is mentioned is Yaakov/James 2:8 that fulfills the Law given to God’s People at Mt. Sinai. It is the Law of the Kingdom of Heaven, the Torah internalized, the law of Love. “If you really fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself,’ you do well.”

[#9

<http://www.jewishjewels.org/blog/love-god-love-your-neighbor/>]

The Royal Law is a law that should govern us in all our dealings with people, regardless of their status or ethnicity. All people should be regarded as “neighbors” and treated with love. Rabbi Shaul comments further on the Royal Law: “Owe no one anything except to love one another, for he who loves another has fulfilled the law.

[Love and adultery?

Love and slander?

Is there someone you don’t like? Make it a point to greet them, smile, show warmth, show kindness!]

The Messiah gave His followers a “new commandment”: “A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another ...” (Jn. 13:34).

[#10

called to a deeper, more selfless, sacrificial, and unconditional love for their “neighbor.” Not just loving their neighbor as themselves, but loving as Yeshua loved]

This commandment was “new” because the disciples were being called to a deeper, more selfless, sacrificial, and unconditional love for their “neighbor.” Not just loving their neighbor as themselves, but loving as Yeshua loved, who was about to show them a love that would die for them.

As Yeshua Himself said it: “This is My commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this than to lay down one’s life for his friends” (Yn. 15:12-13).

[called to a deeper, more selfless, sacrificial, and unconditional love for their “neighbor.” Not just loving their neighbor as themselves, but loving as Yeshua loved]

Yn 13.35 Everyone will know that you are my talmidim by the fact that you have love for each other.”

So, how is Or HaOlam doing?

So, what do Google reviews say?

[#11]

- “I have visited there twice and thoroughly enjoyed the joyful worship, friendly people, and thought-provoking/inspiring messages! Highly recommend it as a place to be on Sabbath morning!”
- “Lovely place to find Yeshua, it's a warm welcoming place and so nice to have oneg with the congregation afterwards.”
- “Coming again. The people are great. They are more than amazing with food and proving there (sic) beliefs.”

[Three references to food with people!]

[https://www.google.com/search?safe=active&sa=X&biw=1164&bih=865&q=messianic+synagogues+near+me&npsic=0&rffq=1&rlha=0&rlag=38965888,-94703135,995&tbm=lcl&ved=2ahUKEwisl9Ltja3gAhVFS60KHdaRBy8QtgN6BAgAEAQ&tbs=lr:1,2m1!1e2!2m1!1e16!3sIAE,lf:1,lf_ui:1&rldoc=1#rli=hd::si:15968579055536242378,l,ChxtZKNzaWFuaWMgc3luYWdvZ3VlcyBuZWYyIG1lIlgOQAQFaFgoUbWVzc2lhbmIjIH5bmFnb2d1ZXNl, mv:!1m2!1d38.9754479!2d-94.680922!2m2!1d38.9560941!2d-94.708157]

How much credibility to Google reviews?

Do you try to visit with newcomers, loners? Get people’s story. Make new friends? Bless old friends?

“Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself. Let each of you look out not only for his own interests but also for the interests of others” (Phil. 2:3-4).

[#12]

“Therefore be imitators of God as dear children. And walk in love, as Messiah also has loved us and given Himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling aroma” (Eph. 5:1-2).

[#13]

Yokhanan, known as the Shaliakh [representative] of Love, has more to say about love between believers in Messiah than anyone else in the Messianic Scriptures. “My little children, let us not love in word or in tongue, but in deed and in truth” (1 Jn.3:18).

(1 Jn 4:12) If we love one another, God abides in us, and His love has been perfected in us.

(1 Jn. 3:14) We know that we have passed from death to life because we love the brothers. He who does not love his brother abides in death.

Strong words!

[#14]

[Neil and Jamie Lash]: This is one of our all-time favorite books by Henry Drummond, a renowned nineteenth-century Scottish evangelist. Commentary on 1 Cor 13

Patience: Love is patient and longsuffering, even with difficult people. Drummond calls patience the “normal attitude of love.” Love is not in a hurry, is able to wait and not make demands on others.

[Are we patient?]

Kindness: Are we kind in our dealings with others? Do we see their needs and help meet them if possible? Kindness is love in action. Do we do kind things? “What God has put in our power is the happiness of those about us, and that is large to be secured by our being kind to them.”

(Drummond p. 26)

[Are we kind? Let me amplify this one. About a year ago I heard then introduced Shaunti Feldhahn’s Kindness Challenge.]

In The Kindness Challenge, innovative researcher Shaunti Feldhahn reveals three simple steps proven to make any interaction better and any relationship thrive.

[<https://shaunti.com/tb-books/the-kindness-challenge/>]

Only one or two have told me of doing this.]

2.5-minute video at

<https://vimeo.com/193956690>

Take the Kindness Challenge

<https://www.jointhekindnesschallenge.com/>

[<https://shaunti.com/tb-books/the-kindness-challenge/>]

Marriage/Valentines

immediate application

From Shaunti:

[If you are single, please bear with me.]

After You’re Married, Keep Dating Your Wife (It is Much Easier Than You Think)

Your wife doesn’t feel forever loved and happy just because at your wedding you declared your forever love and married her.

[November 30, 2018 by Shaunti Feldhahn

<https://shaunti.com/2018/11/after-youre-married-keep-dating-your-wife-it-is-much-easier-than-you-think/>]

Make Her Happy Action

#1: Continue to go on dates, weekly.

#2: Spend time together, regardless of what you're doing

#3: Put down your phone, turn off the TV and listen to her – so that it is obvious that you're listening

#4: Do the little daily things that say “I would choose you all over again.”

[Like taking her hand when you are crossing a parking lot. Like calling her for no reason, just to say hi. Like apologizing when you've been in a funk and reassuring her that the two of you are okay. Like sending her a text message during the day that says, “I was just watching some drama play out at work, and feeling so grateful for how kind and generous you are. I really scored when I met you. I love you.”]

Fully 82% of women in our research have an unspoken question about “am I loveable?” and “does he really love me?” that doesn't go away in marriage. Your wife is asking that unspoken question every day, and you are answering it “yes” or “no” every day – whether you realize it or not.

Answering that question “yes” in the little things of life, every day, is the way to make your wife happy.

[<https://shaunti.com/2018/11/after-youre-married-keep-dating-your-wife-it-is-much-easier-than-you-think/>]

HUSBANDS ARE THE BEST PEOPLE TO SHARE YOUR SECRETS WITH.

THEY'LL NEVER TELL ANYONE BECAUSE THEY AREN'T EVEN LISTENING.

[Continuing in Drummond's exposition on 1 Cor 13 from Neil & Jamie Lash ...]

Generosity: Love refuses to be jealous when another is blessed but rejoices with them. Generosity in heart attitude thinks the best of others with a largeness of soul.

Humility: The humble person does not inflate his own importance, but considers others better than himself. He is not “puffed up,” nor does he brag about his achievements. Humility is love hiding.

[Henry Drummond, “not jealous, not boastful”]

Courtesy: Love has manners and shows respect for other people. It is polite, is never rude, and doesn't push itself to the head of the line. Love, like the Holy Spirit, is a gentleman.

Unselfishness: The unselfish person thinks of others before themselves. Their heart loves to give. Love is others-centered. It does not “seek its own,” has no “rights.” Serves.

[Henry Drummond, “not rude or selfish”]

Good temper: Not overly sensitive, nor irritated, nor quick to take offense. The man or woman with a good temper is not easily provoked and is not sullen, bitter, or angry. They have a good disposition.

Guilelessness: Guileless people overlook offenses. They keep no record of wrong but focus on the good in people. A person without guile doesn't hold resentment in his or her heart.
[Henry Drummond, "not easily angered, and it keeps no record of wrongs."]

Sincerity: This includes honesty and integrity in dealing with others as well as a love of the truth. It excludes hypocrisy. Love rejoices in the truth but also refrains from exposing the weaknesses of others.
[Henry Drummond, "Love does not gloat over other people's sins but takes its delight in the truth."]

Loving as Messiah loved includes unselfishness, a gracious disposition, guilelessness, and sincerity. This is only possible if we first receive the love from God. Without Him, we can do nothing, including loving our neighbor. The love of God is poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit (Romans 5:5).

The more of the Ruakh we have, the more love we should have! Henry Drummond sums it up nicely: "Life is not a holiday, but an education. And the one eternal lesson for all is how better we can love."

[Henry Drummond]

Eph 5.21-33 Submit to one another in fear of the Messiah. Wives should submit to their husbands as they do to the Lord; because the husband is head of the wife, just as the Messiah, as head of the Messianic Community, is himself the one who keeps the body safe. Just as the Messianic Community submits to the Messiah, so also wives should submit to their husbands in everything. As for husbands, love your wives, just as the Messiah loved the Messianic Community, indeed, gave himself up on its behalf, in order to set it apart for God, making it clean through immersion in the mikveh, so to speak, in order to present the Messianic Community to himself as a bride to be proud of, without a spot, wrinkle or any such thing, but holy and without defect. This is how husbands ought to love their wives — like their own bodies; for the man who loves his wife is loving himself. Why, no one ever hated his own flesh! On the contrary, he feeds it well and takes care of it, just as the Messiah does the Messianic Community, because we are parts of his Body. "Therefore a man will leave his father and mother and remain with his wife, and the two will become one." There is profound truth hidden here, which I say concerns the Messiah and the Messianic Community. However, the text also applies to each of you individually: let each man love his wife as he does himself, and see that the wife respects her husband.

[Me and the Quintana home in Schenectady, NY. The first appearance of a healthy husband/wife relationship I'd EVER seen in my whole life.]

Eph. 6.1-4 Children, what you should do in union with the Lord is obey your parents, for this is right. 2 "Honor your father and mother" — this is the first commandment that embodies a promise — 3 "so that it may go well with you, and you may live long in the Land." Fathers, don't irritate your children and make them resentful; instead, raise them with the Lord's kind of discipline and guidance.

My vision was that Or HaOlam would be a place of wholeness in joyful service to the King, of healing for wounded Jewish people and all people, and therefore an end to our wounding people. Giving all to Him is key to wholeness.

History of Healing Helps:

- Sozo sessions, ongoing as needed
- Trauma healing sessions for groups
- Nov. 2007 Ancient Paths Empowering Relationships
- Feb. 2009 Ancient Paths Overcoming Anger
- June, 2012 Ancient Paths: Blessing Generations
- Mar. 8-9, 2013 Ancient Paths Financial Foundations
- Oct 19, 2013 Chris Coursey: Joy Starts Here
- Feb 20-23, 2014 RTF w Brawers
- Oct., 2015 Darrell Brazell: Power of Joy
- Dec. 10, 2016 Jeanne Nigro
- Oct 6-7, 2018 Father Son campout
- Nov 10-11, 2018 RTF Brawers
- March 9, 2019 Chris Coursey: Thrive: 19 Relational Brains Skills <https://thrivetoday.org/>

True Identity is where you jump start your experience with joy using a variety of relational brain skills. Mar. 9-10, 2019 Soon!

Life is about relationships; your relationship with God and your relationships with people. But many relationships don't work because people lack relational skills. We train people in the skills that make relationships work.

All of this means you live peacefully and joyfully with the comforting awareness of God by your side [Immanuel]. Your normal everyday life is transformed to a new normal of joy and peace.

THRIVE Training equips you with relational skills that even the best families may miss or overlook. Careful study of Scripture and of how the brain is configured led us to identify 19 brain-based relational skills that provide the full range of life functions for our minds and relationships. When we lack these skills, pain, addictions, conflicts and other problems prevail.

If you feel pushed beyond your limits by someone else's anger, fear or even joy, for example, you know what it feels like when Skill 9 is missing. Perhaps your parents were not fully equipped or lacked the time to practice a skill with you.

[From Peter van der Steur: The greatest benefits I actually received from the Life Model were:

- 1. understanding the maturity stages and being able to place myself in them and realize what skills I had never learned,*
- 2. understanding the joy center, its importance, how to strengthen it and learning to relate to myself and others with this understanding.]*

Whatever the case THRIVE today gives you the strategic training you missed growing up and changes patterns that were handed down for generations, all for under $20 a training hour! It's hard to hire a life coach, counselor or consultant for that price. Mar. 9-10, 2019

[<http://thrivetoday.org/thrive/>]

It is expensive. Investment. Talk to me if you need help.]

Just go to
orhaolam.com/
Scroll down

True Identity
March 9 & 10
THRIVE today

True Identity Event March 9 & 10, 2019 Life is about relationships; your relationship with God and your relationships with people. But many relationships don't work because people lack relational skills. We train people in the skills that make relationships work. Chris & Jen Coursey teaching the 19 Brain Skills, from the Life Model School Click on their names to learn more about their deep healing ministry!

Click here to register: Registration Details

A point about emotional, spiritual, relational, physical health that is deeply politically incorrect. [You've maybe seen these ads ...]

Get Your Hands On The #1 Pot Stock Insiders Love Before It's Too

Sponsored: www.weeklygains.com

The Motley Fool

CEO Bets $1.1 billion on 1 Pot Stock

By Grace Phillips

A little-known Canadian company went public, and is already making people rich, including one lucky insider — a ski bum with strong coding skills — who made $1.1 billion with his stake in the company.

But that's not why investors are buying shares hand over fist right now. The real reason is that they think this stock will make them rich, too.

Because Canada just legalized recreational marijuana use...and legalization has opened up a massive growth opportunity for 1 company.

YOUR OFFICIAL INVITATION TO THE FIRST EVER EVENT OF ITS KIND

THE AMERICAN CANNABIS SUMMIT:

Marijuana Investing for Beginners

You've probably heard the stories of everyday American becoming "marijuana millionaires." A few folks have even become billionaires from this lucrative new market.

So you may be asking yourself, "is this something I can do too?"

For the first time ever, the answer is "yes!"

The legal US cannabis (the official name of marijuana) market is currently $10.8 billion. Experts are projecting it could grow to $100 billion in the US, and $1 trillion globally in the next 5 years.

And now it's perfectly legal (and incredibly lucrative) for ordinary citizens to invest in marijuana stocks. Here's how:

Step 1: Open a Free Brokerage Account.

Note: If you already have a brokerage account, here are the 3 best pot stocks to target today.

If you've never traded stocks before, the first thing you need to do is open a brokerage account. Don't worry. They're free to open and simple to use.

This account lets you buy and sell marijuana stocks easily.

Some brokerages, like Robinhood.com, allow you to purchase many, but not

[<https://www.cnn.com/2019/02/07/investing/cannabis-stocks-bubble/index.html>]

You've probably heard the stories of everyday American becoming "marijuana millionaires." A few folks have even become billionaires from this lucrative new market. So you may be asking yourself, "is this something I can do too?" For the first time ever, the answer is "yes!"

Imprimis

Marijuana, Mental Illness, and Violence

January 2019 • Volume 48, Number 1 • Alex Berenson

Alex Berenson
Author, Tell Your Children: The Truth About Marijuana, Mental Illness, and Violence

Alex Berenson is a graduate of Yale University with degrees in history and economics. He began his career in journalism in 1994 as a business reporter for the Denver Post, joined the financial news website TheStreet.com in 1996, and worked as an investigative reporter for The New York Times from 1999 to 2010, during which time he also served two stints as an Iraq War

Search

Subscribe to Imprimis Now

Subscribe

About Imprimis

Imprimis is the free monthly speech digest of Hillsdale College and is dedicated to educating citizens and promoting civil and religious liberty by covering cultural, economic, political, and educational issues. The content of Imprimis is drawn from speeches delivered at Hillsdale College events.

First published in 1972, Imprimis is one of the most widely circulated opinion publications in the nation with over 3.9 million subscribers.

Get your FREE print subscription to Imprimis now!

Seventy miles northwest of New York City is a hospital that looks like a prison, its drab brick buildings wrapped in layers of fencing and barbed wire. This grim facility is called the Mid-Hudson Forensic Psychiatric Institute. It's one of three places the state of New York sends the criminally mentally ill—defendants judged not guilty by reason of insanity. Until recently, my wife Jackie—Dr. Jacqueline Berenson—was a senior psychiatrist there. Many of Mid-Hudson's 300 patients are killers and arsonists. At least one is a cannibal. Most have been diagnosed with psychotic disorders like schizophrenia that provoked them to violence against family members or strangers.

A couple of years ago, Jackie was telling me about a patient. In passing, she said something like, Of course he'd been smoking pot his whole life.

Of course? I said. Yes, they all smoke. So marijuana causes schizophrenia?

I was surprised, to say the least. I tended to be a libertarian on drugs. Years before, I'd covered the pharmaceutical industry for The New York Times. I was aware of the claims about marijuana as medicine, and I'd watched the slow spread of legalized cannabis without much interest.

[<https://imprimis.hillsdale.edu/marijuana-mental-illness-violence/>] See this article for a GREAT expose on the great lie that the culture is feeding us about the harmlessness of recreational marijuana.

<sup>1 Yn 4.19</sup> We love, because He first loved us.

<sup>1 Yn 4.9-11</sup> The love of God was revealed among us by this — that God sent His one and only Son into the world so that we might live through Him.

This is love — not that we have loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son as an atonement for our sins. Loved ones, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.