A large, billowing plume of orange and white smoke and fire rises into a dark blue night sky. In the foreground, a cityscape is visible, including a prominent white minaret with a golden top. The scene suggests a major explosion or a rocket launch.

Messianic Jews 6.13 to 6.15 For when God made his promise to Avraham, he swore an oath to do what he had promised; and since there was no one greater than himself for him to swear by, He swore by Himself and said,

Messianic Jews 6.13 to 6.15 “I will certainly bless you, and I will certainly give you many descendants”; and so, after waiting patiently, Avraham saw the promise fulfilled.

Tanakh [Hebrew scriptures] Background

Ber/Gen 22.1-2 After these things, God tested Avraham. He said to him, “Avraham!” and he answered, “Here I am.” He said, “Take your son, your only son, whom you love, Yitz’chak; and go to the land of Moriyah. There you are to offer him as a burnt offering on a mountain that I will point out to you.”

Beresheet/Gen 22.10-11 Then Avraham put out his hand and took the knife to kill his son. But the angel of ADONI called to him out of heaven:
"Avraham? Avraham!"...Now I know that you are a man who fears God, because you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me."

Beresheet/Gen 22.13-14 Avraham raised his eyes and looked, and there behind him was a ram caught in the bushes by its horns. Avraham went and took the ram and offered it up as a burnt offering in place of his son. Avraham called the place ADONI Yir'eh [ADONI will see (to it), ADONI provides] — as it is said to this day, “On the mountain ADONI is seen.”

Yn 8.56 Abraham rejoiced to see My day; he saw it and was thrilled.”

Beresheet/Gen 22.15-18 The angel of ADONI called to Avraham a second time out of heaven. He said, “I have sworn by myself - says ADONI - that because you have done this, because you haven't withheld your son, your only son, I will most certainly bless you; and I will most certainly increase Beresheet/Gen 22.15-18 your descendants to as many as there are stars in the sky or grains of sand on the seashore. Your descendants will possess the cities of their enemies, and by your descendants all the nations of the earth will be blessed — because you obeyed my order.””

He swore by Himself

וַיֹּאמֶר בְּי נִשְׁבַּעְתִּי נְאֻם-יְיָ:

"I will certainly bless you, and I will certainly give you many descendants";

כִּי-בָרַךְ אֲבָרְכֶךָ, וְהִרְבָּה אֲרַבָּה אֶת-זַרְעֶךָ

כְּכּוֹכְבֵי הַשָּׁמַיִם, וְכַחוֹל אֲשֶׁר עַל-שֵׁפֶת הַיָּם ;

As stars in the sky or grains of sand on the seashore.

MJ 6.16-20 Now people swear oaths by someone greater than themselves, and confirmation by an oath puts an end to all dispute. Therefore, when God wanted to demonstrate still more convincingly the unchangeable character of his intentions to those who were to receive what he had promised,

MJ 6.16-20 he added an oath to the promise; so that through two unchangeable things,

FIRST Ber/Gen 12.1-3, 7 Now ADONI said to Avram, “Get yourself out of your country, away from your kinsmen and away from your father’s house, and go to the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great nation, I will bless you, and I will make your name great; and you are to be a blessing.

Ber/Gen 12.1-3, 7 I will bless those who bless you, but I will curse anyone who curses you; and by you all the families of the earth will be blessed.”... “To your descendants I will give this land.”

SECOND He swore by Himself

וַיֹּאמֶר, בִּי נִשְׁבַּעְתִּי נְאֻם-יְיָ:

"I will certainly bless you, and I will certainly give you many descendants";

כִּי-בָרַךְ אֲבֹרְכֶךָ, וְהִרְבֵּה אֲרַבֶּה אֶת-זַרְעֶךָ

Ber/Gen 22.17-18 give you many descendants; as many as there are stars in the sky or grains of sand on the seashore. Your descendants will possess the cities of their enemies, and by your descendants all the nations of the earth will be blessed — because you obeyed my order.”

MJ 6.16-20 he added an oath to the promise; so that through two unchangeable things, in neither of which God could lie, we, who have fled to take a firm hold on the hope set before us, would be strongly encouraged. We have this hope as a sure and safe

MJ 6.16-20 anchor for ourselves, a hope that goes right on through to what is inside the parokhet, where a forerunner has entered on our behalf, namely, Yeshua, who has become a cohen gadol forever, to be compared with Malki-Tzedek.

Rev.11.19 Then the Temple of God in heaven was opened, and the Ark of the Covenant was seen in his Temple; and there were flashes of lightning, voices, peals of thunder, an earthquake and violent hail.

Made of marble and gold, Herod's temple was taller than a fifteen-story building. Built on the exact location of Solomon's temple and the temple Nehemiah constructed, it could accommodate hundreds of thousands of pilgrims at one time and was twice as large as the largest temple enclosure in Rome.

The Golden Vine

The Golden Vine was one of the most remarkable in all the Temple precincts. [Talmud] Middot records that “A golden vine stood over the entrance to the sanctuary, trained over posts; and whosoever gave a leaf, or a berry, or a cluster as a freewill-offering he brought it and the cohenim hung it thereon.” This vine was so famous that even Tacitus (History 5.5) wrote about it. Messiah may also have alluded to this very feature of the Temple when he said in John 15.1: “I am the true vine.”

The Temple, their center of worship, that Yeshua attended, where the Acts 2 message was likely given, was destroyed. Cataclysm. Either just before or just after this MJ scripture was written.

Did we in 2020 have significant challenges to our faith?

Earlier this year, New York Sen. David Carlucci introduced a bill that would require social media networks to ban and silence speech deemed hateful, a practice they seem to have already adopted.

Leaders in the House of Representatives announced on Friday a rules package for the 117th Congress that includes a proposal to use “gender-inclusive language.”

Speaker Nancy Pelosi (D-Calif.) and Rules Committee Chairman James McGovern (D-Mass.) announced on Friday that the rules package includes changes that would “honor all gender identities by changing pronouns and familial relationships in the House rules to be gender neutral.”

Terms to be stricken from clause 8(c)(3) of rule XXIII, the House's Code of Official Conduct, as outlined in the proposed rules (pdf), include "father, mother, son, daughter, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, husband, wife, father-in-law, mother-in-law...

Current election turmoil

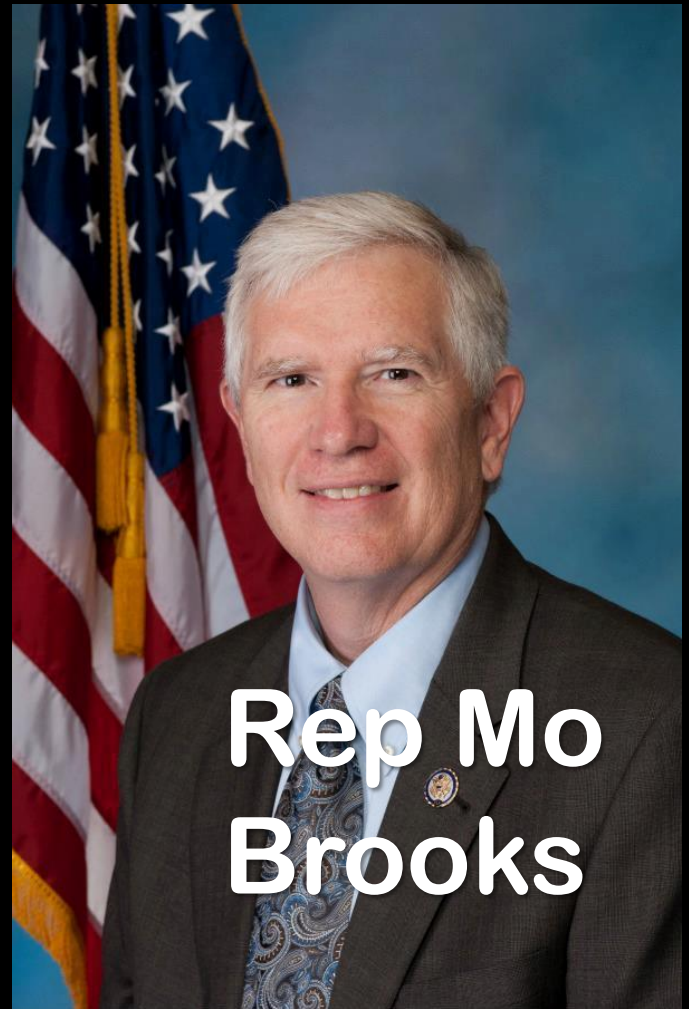

In the United States constitution, a contingent election is the procedure used to elect the president or vice president in the event that no candidate for one or both of these offices wins an absolute majority of votes in the Electoral College.

VP Michael Pence, also Pres. of the Senate

Sen. Josh Hawley

Rep Mo Brooks

In Article Two, S 1, Clause 3, modified by amendment 12 of the United States Constitution, the procedure is that...the House chooses one of the three candidates who received the most electoral votes. Each state's delegation casts one en bloc vote to determine the president

Contingent elections have occurred only three times in American history: in 1801, 1825, and 1837. In 1800, Thomas Jefferson and Aaron Burr, the presidential and vice-presidential nominees on the ticket of the Democratic-Republican party, received the same number of electoral votes.

John Adams was depressed that Thomas Jefferson was going to become the president of the United States. John Adams and every other conservative in his party believed that Thomas Jefferson was the worst nightmare, that he was going to bring into the United States all the worst impulses of the French Revolution. He was accused of being an atheist. He was everything that Washington and Adams had worked the hardest to protect from, and Jefferson won the election
