A few months after Auschwitz was liberated, American soldiers advancing through Germany began to discover and liberate smaller concentration camps. The commander of the American forces,

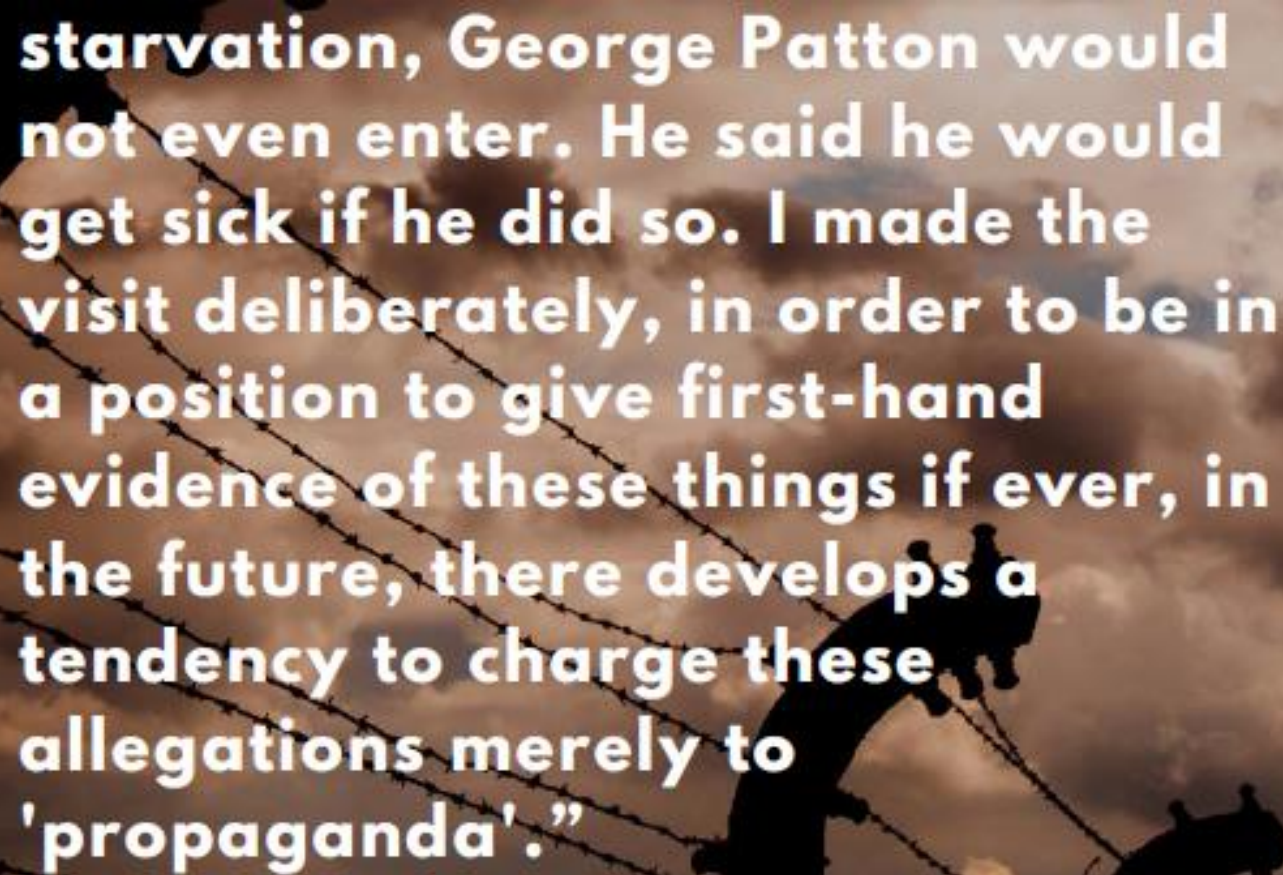

General Dwight Eisenhower (who went on to be the 34th President of the United States) wrote a letter describing the experience of the Buchenwald Concentration Camp network.

EISENHOWER WROTE:

Resolution adopted by the General Assembly on 1 November 2005:

The Holocaust, which resulted in the murder of one third of the Jewish people, along with countless members of other minorities, will forever be a warning to all people of the dangers of hatred, bigotry, racism and prejudice.

Zekh 2.12 For ADONI-Tzva'ot has sent me on a glorious mission to the nations that plundered you, and this is what he says: "Anyone who injures you injures the very pupil of my eye.

Today, Holocaust denial is a growing phenomenon, as people claim the events never happened, or suggest that they have been exaggerated. It is another dangerous manifestation of modern –day anti-semitism!

Dvarim/ Dt. 25.17-18 “Remember what Amalek did to you along the way as you came out from Egypt— how he happened upon you along the way and attacked those among you in the rear, all the stragglers behind you, when you were tired and weary—he did not fear God.

Hillel International

Shmuel, our Jewish college students need us to stand with them against anti-Semitism wherever it rears its ugly head, on campus and online. Please help today!

Dear Shmuel,

I need to speak frankly with you about one of the most urgent issues facing Jewish college students today. As a caring friend who shares an appreciation of our Jewish future and time-honored culture and traditions, I know this matter will be of great concern to you ...

Sadly, I am talking about the appalling rise in anti-Semitic incidents across the country and on college campuses.

And distressingly, the coronavirus pandemic has done nothing to quell the age-old hatred directed against Jews. In fact, perpetrators of anti-Semitism have found new ways to spread their poisonous message — both on campus and online.

This is why I am writing to you today. Hillel must be there for Jewish students, offering a safe and welcoming space for them that is free from anti-Semitism and hate, no matter where they are. And right now, that means we must have an increased presence on college campuses for students who have returned to the classroom and have a strong online presence for those students who are attending class remotely.

In these challenging times, Hillel is standing with Jewish students and helping to protect them from hate and bigotry. Will you stand with them and with Hillel?

The time for action is now. Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, many students are feeling even more isolated from their families, friends and communities than ever before. And sadly, hatemongers have used these conditions to their advantage. Last year, Hillel recorded 178 anti-Semitic incidents on our North American campuses, an all-time high, even with campuses closed for much of the spring semester due to the pandemic. These incidents include:

- Multiple Jewish student life buildings have been defaced by anti-Semitic graffiti, while others have experienced property destruction and vandalism.
- Online Jewish learning and Torah study classes have been interrupted by cyber-attacks and by anti-Semitic trolls spewing hate in video and chat.
- Some Jewish students have been threatened and bullied simply because they were expressing their Judaism by wearing a Star of David necklace or placing a mezuzah on their doorframe.

Shmuel, these actions reflect a hate that is thousands of years old — but the pain and wounds they inflict are new and fresh. We need your support right now so that Hillel can help as many Jewish students as possible to stop this hate. This matter is so critical that any gift you give will be matched, dollar-for-dollar. Your gift of $18 will become $36, your gift of $36 will become $72, and if you can give $72, it will be matched and become $144.

With your support, Hillel will continue to stand with Jewish students as we all combat this heinous threat by taking action.

Netanyahu: 'Never Again' is Israel's Mission

- Israel's mission is to ensure the Jewish people will never be defenseless against those who seek to destroy it, Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu said in honor of International Holocaust Remembrance Day.

•We remember this darkest chapter in human history when a European country decided to adopt a policy and a program to exterminate every last Jew, mobilizing the full power of a modern developed industrial state to implement this incredible nightmare,” Netanyahu said.

- The world has not learned the lessons of the Holocaust and eradicated antisemitism, the prime minister lamented.

- “The disease of antisemitism continues to contaminate and spread,” Netanyahu added. “A vaccine to safeguard against the antisemitism virus has yet to be found.” (JPost / VFI News)

Perhaps more than any other single location, Auschwitz has become symbolic of the Holocaust experience. Although many are familiar with this place through films and the testimony of survivors, it is often as a backdrop. This series will explore the evolution of the camp, the lives of those imprisoned within it, and its liberation and aftermath as Holocaust icon.
