Good news from Israel

Despite Pandemic, Israel Joins World's Top 20 GDP Per Capita by Yakir Benzion, United With Israel

The latest data compiled by the Israeli edition of one of the world's leading business magazines, Forbes, shows that Israel is in 19th place in the world based on GDP per capita, the magazine reported recently.

Led by Luxembourg, which ranks first with a whopping $116,021 per capita, Israel is up there with the best, including the US in 6th place, with $63,416 per capita, Singapore in 8th at $58,902, and Qatar – the only Arab country in the top 20 – in 11th place at $52,144.

Israel is still considered one of the most expensive countries in the world, the report said, with the OECD noting that prices in Israel today are about 25% higher than the average of all the countries in the organization.

Thus, while in terms of per capita income Israel is in 19th place, which is very respectable, in terms of the actual purchasing power of consumers Israel is ranked only 35th in the world.

Word study

Beresheet/Gen 3.20 The man called his wife Havah [Eve] [life], because she was the mother of all living.

וַיִּקְרָא הָאָדָם שֵׁם אִשְׁתּוֹ חַוָּה: כִּי הִוא הֵיְתָה, אִם כָּל-חַי.

Motherhood = source of life.

Prophetic label, before any childbirth.

Not at all obvious in the English Eve.

Phonetically spell Havah or Khavah.

Theme of message, think about Khavah = Motherhood = Source of Life

Two possible roots to Khava: Khayah חיה and Khavah חווה.

Words structurally related to Khavah:

[Could be both, or ambivalent, so use both. Certain things in scripture not clear, so use both meanings.]

Modern Hebrew words structurally related to Khavah summary:

1. To give life
2. To experience,
3. To pronounce, express opinion,
4. To farm

1. Physical motherhood
2. Women experience things often more intensely, right brain perception, spatial perception
3. Women have a quicker, more intuitive opinion]

from “Khayah, to live”

Adam’s prophetic word of what she would be; that he and his wife should not die immediately for the offense they had committed, but should live and propagate their species, as well as be partakers of spiritual and eternal life, from her.

She would also be the mother of Him that should bring life and immortality to light. Previous verse:

Beresheet/Gen 3.14-15 Adoni Elohim said to the serpent...“Because you did this, I will put animosity between you and the woman—between your seed and her seed. He will crush your head, and you will crush his heel.

Ro. 16.20 Now the God of shalom will soon crush satan under your feet. May the grace of our Lord Yeshua be with you.

This message is practical/relational, but theological/ spiritual underpinnings is Atonement of Messiah.

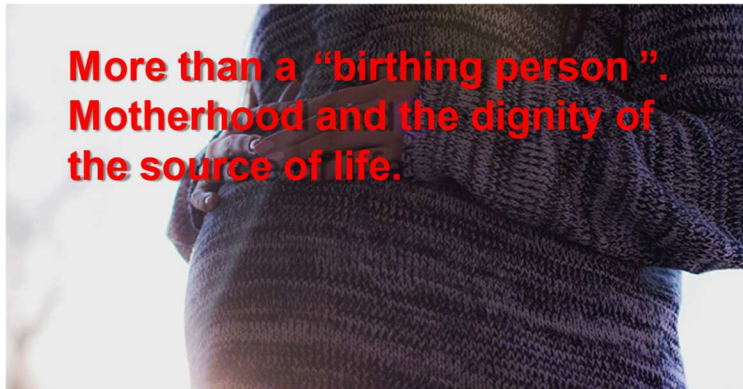

[All about Messiah Yeshua, ultimately!]

When we worship dance, arguable that we invoke this crushing of satan.

Protection of the source of life: Mothers [and all women] RECEIVING protection

Principles of touching:

- Private areas are inviolate outside marriage
- The shoulder is the place of public contact
- Hold the door open, ladies first

A Prayer That Left Me Gloriously Ruined

by Gary Thomas

I was a young husband, and during an intense time of prayer, I sensed God telling me very directly that Lisa wasn't just my wife, but she was also His daughter and I was to treat her accordingly. It was an intense application of 1 John 3:1: "See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God."

So when I realized I was married to God's daughter—and that you, women, are married to God's sons—everything about how I viewed marriage changed. God feels about my wife—His daughter—in an even holier and more passionate way than I feel about my own daughters. Suddenly, my marriage was no longer about just me and one other person; it was very much a relationship with a passionately interested third partner. I realized one of my primary forms of worship throughout the rest of my life would be honoring God by taking care of a woman who would always be, in His divine mind, "His little girl."

Let that sink in. Commitment by all men and boys.

How have us guys been?

"Me first."

"I'm offended."

"My problems."

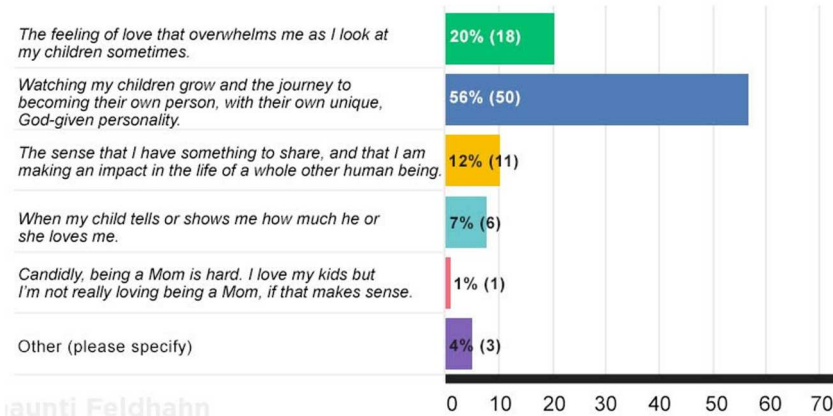

Love her as Messiah loved the congregation. Die for her!]

In 2014, The Islamic State had swept across much of Syria, overtaking cities and spreading terror as civil war raged all around it.

As ISIS approached a town called Kobani, a group of Kurdish female fighters, armed with AK-47s and a lot of courage, were determined not to let ISIS take their town, homes, or their families.

And although they had braided hair and painted fingernails, when it came to fighting ISIS they were as fierce as any male army.

Mothers and all women:

- You deserve to be protected.

Spiritual warfare can be MUCH BIGGER than physical warfare.

[<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ktvB21Jnxi4&t=157s>
from 2.35 to 2.49]

Shmot/Ex.35.22 Both men and women came, as many as had willing hearts; they brought nose-rings, earrings, signet-rings, belts, all kinds of gold jewelry — everyone bringing an offering of gold to Adonai.

Shmot/Ex.35.26 Also all the women who were wise-hearted spun with their hands, and brought what they had woven—the blue, purple, scarlet and fine linen.

[Women were more intense givers for the Mishkan, the Tabernacle of Moshe.]

Shmot/Ex.38.8 He [B'tzal'el] made the basin of bronze with its base of bronze from the mirrors of the women serving at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Shmot/Ex 32.2-3 Aharon said to them, “Have your wives, sons and daughters strip off their gold earrings; and bring them to me.” The people stripped off their gold earrings and brought them to Aharon.

[This is the story of the making of the golden calf. Rashi says that there is an implication here that the women would NOT easily give up their jewelry, and so the idolatry would be delayed by Aharon's request, till Moshe got back. Nevertheless, the men got the earrings.]

The women refused to give up their gold, the husbands found other ways to get gold for the Golden Calf. So much for that idea, but at least the women were proven righteous.

Therefore Rosh Khodesh can be celebrated as a monthly Women's Day.

A Life Giver.

1 Shmuel 1.5-10 Hannah ... Adoni had closed her womb. Her rival would taunt her bitterly to provoke her, because Adoni had closed her womb. So it was year after year, whenever she went up to the House of Adoni, that she would provoke her; so she wept and would not eat... While her soul was bitter, she prayed to Adoni and wept.

^{1 Shmuel 1.11-12} Then she took a vow; she said, “Adoni-Tzva’ot, if you will notice how humiliated your servant is, if you will remember me and not forget your servant but will give your servant a male child, then I will give him to Adoni for as long as he lives; and no razor will ever come on his head.” She prayed for a long time before Adoni.

[Prophet Shmuel. Brought revival to Israel. Guided them into a Kingdom.]

Another Life Giver:

^{Lk 2.36-38} There was also a prophetess named Hannah Bat-P’nu’el, of the tribe of Asher. She was a very old woman — she had lived with her husband seven years after her marriage and had remained a widow ever since; now she was eighty-four. She never left the Temple grounds but worshipped there night and day, fasting and praying. She came by at that moment and began thanking God and speaking about the child to everyone who was waiting for Yerushalayim to be liberated.

[Exhortation to mothers, and all women: welcomed the Messiah to ancient Jerusalem. Maybe key to His coming? Welcome Him now!!]

Another Life Giver:

^{Gal. 4.19} My dear children, I am suffering the pains of giving birth to you all over again — and this will go on until the Messiah takes shape in you.

Zion travailed

^{Yeshayahu/Is 66.7-8} Before going into labor, she gave birth; before her pains came, she delivered a male child. Who ever heard of such a thing? Who has ever seen such things? Is a country born in one day? Is a nation brought forth all at once? For as soon as Tziyon went into labor, she brought forth her children.

Are there spiritual issues to fight for?

Some with political overtones!

Firstly: The Pennsylvania Family Institute letter:

“We call on the University of Pittsburgh to stop all experimentation on aborted babies and the inhumane practice of grafting their skin and body parts onto rodents,” it says.

They urged the state legislature to conduct a full investigation of the university, Planned Parenthood and other groups involved in the experiments. “This ghastly finding is a product of Pitt’s systemic practices of using aborted babies for inhumane research,” they wrote.

“Pitt has been involved in hundreds of fetal kidneys and other organs from aborted babies being distributed for research as part of a project funded by the National Institute of Health. Pitt has also had scientists harvesting fetal livers ‘in vivo’ from fetuses delivered via labor induction.”

Peter Lynas, the UK director of the Evangelical Alliance (EA), wrote to Prime Minister Boris Johnson, warning that the conversion therapy ban Johnson supports in Parliament may criminalize everyday church practices.

"Proposals to end conversion therapy not only put at risk the individual freedom of people who are attracted to those of the same sex, but they also place religious freedom in jeopardy," Lynas warned. "This is not a concern restricted to specific practices, organisations or ministries that provide services to people experiencing same sex attraction – although it will affect them. This will threaten the everyday practices of churches, church leaders, and Christians across the UK."

"An expansive definition of conversion therapy, and a ban along such lines, would place church leaders at risk of prosecution when they preach on biblical texts relating to marriage and sexuality. It would place ministry leaders at risk of arrest for encouraging young people to maintain chastity until marriage. And it would criminalise a member of a church who prays with another member when they ask for prayer to resist temptation as they are attracted to someone of the same sex but do not wish to act on it," Lynas warned.

Lou Engle had a paradigm shift ~pray-adigm shift. He was told your lion is abortion, your bear gay marriage, your Goliath Jerusalem.

In 2004 a woman named Christy Brent had a dream that there would be a pandemic, then a surge in homelessness, then economic decline and loss, social unrest, the storming of the US Capitol, and the president be silenced. After that would be a GREAT harvest.
