בְּאֵין חֲזוֹן, יִפְרַע עִם; וְשִׁמְר תּוֹרָה אֲשֶׁרָהוּ. Mishlei/Prov 29.18

TLV Where there is no divine vision people cast off restraint, but blessed is the one who keeps Torah.

Yeshayahu/Is 50.5-7 Adonai ELOHIM has opened my ear, and I neither rebelled nor turned away. I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who plucked out my beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting. For Adonai ELOHIM will help.

Luke 9.51 And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he steadfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem.

Mes. Jews/Heb 12.1-2 TLV Let us run with endurance the race set before us, focusing on Yeshua, the initiator and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before Him, He endured the execution stake, disregarding its shame; and He has taken His seat at the right hand of the throne of God.

What is the vision of Or HaOlam?

“Working to bring Jewish people, and those grafted in, to their covenantal identity in Messiah.”

1. Salvation through the Atonement of the Messiah. We promote personal faith in the atoning death and resurrection of Yeshua, the King!
2. Covenantal identity of Jewish people, not replacement nor assimilation;
3. Restoration to Torah lifestyle;
4. Restoration/survival of the nation of Israel.

Could we be diverted? Consider a subtle diversion. Replacement Theology = Supersessionism.

[We intend for this to sync with, match and accomplish the vision of Yeshua.]

Supersessionism: the belief that the covenants with Israel are over, and the Nations have superseded Israel as G-d's people.

Somewhat debunked since the reestablishment of the nation of Israel.

Somewhat.

Rabbi Michael Stepakoff, Temple New

[Lawyer, rabbi, songwriter with Ted Pearce, movie maker]

Another kind of supersessionism is people claiming and/or implying that they actually ARE Israel. This is the kind of supersessionism that we ought to be concerned about, I think. Because it isn't open and obvious. It is subtle and tricky.

It isn't out there in the mainline church world, it is on our front door step and in our backyards. It is a creature that looks like us and acts like us, but it is not us. Of course, thanks to the internet and social media, the HRM [Hebrew Roots Movement] is well-known to us. Their key point is that what makes Israel the covenant nation is the keeping of the Sinai Covenant. In this vein, they claim they ARE Israel by virtue of their Torah observance.

At some point we have to see the fundamental principle here, that anyone can keep Torah, but not everyone can be Jewish. And therefore, in the moment that you say being Jewish is based upon Torah-keeping, you unintentionally validate the claims of the HRM-variety supersessionists.

So, in addressing supersessionism, I suggest we need to first be sure we have no misunderstanding of the source of Israel's nationhood and status as "the chosen people." Indeed, the covenant with Israel DOES NOT COME FROM SINAI. In fact, Israel is the chosen people not because of the Torah given to us at Sinai, but, rather, because of the PROMISE THAT GOD MADE TO THE AVOT, the fathers.

Shaul made this clear: "What I am saying is this: the Torah which came 430 years later, does not cancel the covenant previously confirmed by God, so as to make the promise ineffective." (Gal. 3:17).

[Michael Stepakoff]

What is the vision of Or HaOlam?

"Working to bring Jewish people, and those grafted in, to their covenantal identity in Messiah."

A great way to express this vision is by immersion.

- Spiritual cleansing
- Statement of identity,
- Jewish
- grafted in.

- Saturday, Sept 2 – Immersion service 4:30 p.m.,
- 15628 Lake Road #8 Gardner, KS 66030
- preparation class, Aug 26, 1:30 p.m.
- Hebrew terminology: Tvillah action, Mikveh place
[Sometimes Mikveh is used as a verb “mikved”]

[Each person has a little time to share their testimony.]

It is customary to immerse fully - covering every strand of hair with water - a total of three times.

The Torah requires full immersion after

1. Normal emissions of semen, whether from sexual activity, or from nocturnal emission. in order that one should be allowed to consume from a heave offering or sacrifice; while Ezra instituted that one should also do so in order to be allowed to recite words of Torah.
2. after Zav/Zavah<sup>[20]</sup> — abnormal discharges of body fluids
3. after Tzaraath<sup>[21]</sup> — certain skin condition(s).
4. by anyone who came into contact with someone suffering from Zav/Zavah,
5. or into contact with someone still in Niddah(normal menstruation), or who comes into contact with articles that have been used or sat upon by such person, or the woman herself at the end of Niddah.
6. by a Kohen who is being consecrated<sup>[24]</sup>
7. by the Kohen Gadol on Yom Kippur, after sending away the goat to Azazel, and by the man who leads away the goat<sup>[25]</sup>
8. by the Kohen who performed the Red Heifer ritual<sup>[26]</sup>
9. after contact with a corpse or grave,<sup>[27]</sup> in addition to having the ashes of the Red heifer ritual sprinkled upon them
10. after eating meat from an animal that died naturally<sup>[28]</sup>

Modern Orthodox Judaism has several times /conditions for immersion:]

Immersion in a mikveh is obligatory in contemporary Orthodox Jewish practice in the following circumstances:

Women

Following the niddah period after menstruation, prior to resuming marital relations

Following the niddah period after childbirth, prior to resuming marital relations

By a bride, before her wedding

Either gender

As part of a conversion to Judaism

Immersion of utensils acquired from a gentile

Customary immersion in Orthodox Judaism[edit]

Immersion in a mikveh is customary in contemporary Orthodox Jewish practice in the following circumstances:

Men

By a bridegroom, on the day of his wedding, according to the custom of some communities

By a father, prior to the circumcision of his son, according to the custom of some communities<sup>[which?]</sup>

By a kohen prior to a service in which he will recite the priestly blessing, according to the custom of some communities

Before Yom Kippur, according to the custom of some communities

Before a Jewish holiday, according to the custom of some communities

Weekly before Shabbat, under Hasidic and Haredi customs

Shaul/Paul furthered the meaning of repentance/new life.]*

Ro 6.3-5 Those of us who have been immersed into the Messiah Yeshua have been immersed into his death? Through immersion into his death we were buried with him; so that just as, through the glory of the Father, the Messiah was raised from the the dead, likewise we too might live a new life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will also be united with him in a resurrection like his.
