Mattityahu (Matthew) 26:1

לְאַחַר שֶׁדִּבֶּר יֵשׁוּעַ אֶת כָּל הַדְּבָרִים הָאֵלֶּה אָמַר לְתַלְמִידָיו:

When Yeshua had finished speaking, he said to his talmidim,

Mattityahu (Matthew) 26:2

“אַתֶּם יוֹדְעִים כִּי בְּעוֹד יוֹמִים הַפֶּסַח בֹּא וּבֶן־הָאָדָם יִמָּסַר לְהַצְלֵב.”

“As you know, Pesakh is two days away, and the Son of Man will be handed over to be nailed to the execution-stake.”

Mattityahu (Matthew) 26:3

בְּאוֹתָהּ עֵת נִקְהְלוּ רֵאשֵׁי הַכֹּהֲנִים וְזִקְנֵי הָעָם אֶל חֲצַר הַכֹּהֵן הַגָּדוֹל, קַיְפָא שְׁמוֹ,

Then the head cohanim and the elders of the people gathered in the palace of Kayafa the cohen hagadol.

Spiritual Significance of Pesakh

(JNS) According to a Jewish People Policy Institute survey of 3,000 respondents, 97 percent of Israelis Jews say they either host or participate in a Passover Seder, compared to the 2013 Pew Study’s finding of 70 percent of American Jews who participated in the Seder the prior year.

The Passover Seder is one of the only practices of Jews in Israel that is almost equally observed across the spectrum of Jewish sectors, including 93 percent of “totally secular” Jews.

Last relic of Jewish ID to be discarded.]*

David Ben-Gurion, Israel's first Prime Minister, told the UN Commission of Inquiry in 1947: "300 years ago, the 'Mayflower' launched its historical voyage. How many Americans remember the month of the voyage, how many passengers were on the Mayflower and what kind of bread did they consume? However, 3,300 years earlier, the Exodus from Egypt took place. Every Jew knows the date of the Exodus - 15th of the month of Nissan - and the kind of bread - matzah - consumed.

Until today, Jews all over the world tell the story of the Exodus and eat matzah on the 15th of Nissan. They conclude the story of the Exodus with a statement: 'This year we're slaves, but next year we shall be liberated; this year we're here, but next year in Jerusalem.' "

What makes Passover so important?

Shmot/Ex 12.42 This was a night when Adoni kept vigil to bring them out of the land of Egypt, and this same night continues to be a night when Adoni keeps vigil for all the people of Isra'el through all their generations.

[Adoni still continues to keep a vigil.

Targum:

Moses shall go out of the midst of the wilderness, and the King Messiah out of Rome; so it is said in the Jerusalem Targum on the place.]

when Adoni kept vigil
ליל שְׁמֵרִים הוּא לַי

guarded; kept; preserved, maintained; reserved, saved

From Chabad.org:

While the first night of Passover commemorates the redemption from exile in Egypt, the final day celebrates the future Redemption, which G-d will bring about through Moshiach.

The connection between the first and the last redemption is also gleaned from the verse:

Mikhah/Micah 7.15 "As in the days when you left Egypt, I shall show you wonders [during the final Redemption]."

First and final redemptions are related.

[That is why we open the door for Eliyahu/ Elijah. Redemption time.]

Shmot/Ex 2.23-25 God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Avraham, Yitz'chak and Ya'akov. God saw the people of Isra'el, and God acknowledged them.

Rev 8.3-5 Another angel came and stood at the altar, holding a golden incense burner. He was given much incense to offer up along with the prayers of all the kedoshim/holy people upon the golden altar before the throne. And the smoke of the incense,

Rev 8.3-5 with the prayers of the kedoshim, rose before God from the angel's hand. Then the angel took the incense burner and filled it with fire from the altar, and threw it to the earth; and there were clashes of thunder and rumblings and flashes of lightning and earthquakes.

Joel C. Rosenberg addressed the National Religious Broadcasters convention before releasing his new book, The Kremlin Conspiracy. Excerpts from that speech:

Joel C. Rosenberg

Preaching the gospel in the open air is now illegal in Russia. So is sharing the gospel with friends and coworkers -- even in your own home. So is inviting friends to come to church.

The new Russian law signed in July 2016 is the "most restrictive measure [against religious freedom] in post-Soviet history." Darkness is falling in Russia. A new czar has risen, and his name is Vladimir Putin. Putin calls himself a Christian, but he has declared war on the gospel.

Opponents wind up in jail. Journalists disappear or die. The economy is suffocating. Poverty is rampant. Deaths by alcoholism and drug overdoses are exploding. Since Putin came to power in 2000, the population has shrunk by more than three million people.

One in four Russian men die before age fifty-five. And Russians aren't having enough children to replace themselves. Why would they? They have no hope. Yet on March 18 Russians went to the polls and reelect Vladimir Putin once again, giving him power to rule until 2024. Vladimir Putin poses a grave and growing threat to the national security of the United States and our allies [above] any power in the world -- greater than Radical Islam, Iran, North Korea or China...

Putin made global headlines around the world by announcing that Russia has developed new first-strike nuclear missiles and state-of-the-art hypersonic underwater torpedoes that make NATO defenses "completely useless." Putin is hungry for wealth, hungrier for power, hungrier still for territory. He must be stopped, yet no one is stopping him...

Putin sees himself as a modern-day czar. He's not a Communist, not a Marxist or Leninist. He is an imperialist. He feels humiliated by the collapse of the Soviet Empire. He sees his mission as rebuilding the glory of Mother Russia, and, [thus] is hell-bent on expanding Russia's borders...

One-part mafia kingpin, one-part imperialist czar, Putin is:

- 1) rebuilding the Russian offensive war machine,
- 2) rebuilding Russia's strategic and tactical nuclear forces,
- 3) selling advanced weapons and even nuclear technology to Iran
- 4) selling weapons to N. Korea,
- 5) invading her neighbors,
- 6) silencing her critics, and
- 7) threatening the West.

The big question is: What's next? Yekez/Ezk. 38-39? Gog?

Maj.-Gen. Eyal Ben-Reuven, who is also a member of Knesset, said:

"The people who were supposed to be the 'brakes' in this situation were the Russians, whose planes are currently massacring Syrian civilians in Damascus. The Russians aren't doing their job, and the Americans, unfortunately, aren't in the area and hardly say anything. So if the situation continues the way it is, we're on our way to another wide-scale war in Israel's north. I pray that I'm wrong."

Historical digression...

Hebrides Islands, northern Scotland.

[Note: Island of Lewis]

In 1949, the Island of Lewis was much like any other part of England. The town of Stornoway, where the revival began, had emptying pews as attendance waned, while pubs were thriving. Not a single young person attended services.

Two elderly sisters, housebound and infirm, unable to attend services, made their small home their prayer closet. Peggy and Christine Smith were 82 and 84 and though they were weak in flesh, one blind and the other crippled with arthritis, these women were mighty intercessors and friends of God. The Lord gave them the promise of Isaiah 44.3 and they contended for this promise for their island in prayer day and night.

For I will pour water on the thirsty land, and streams on the dry ground; I will pour out my Spirit on your offspring, and my blessing on your descendants.

[<http://www.chapelofgrace.org.uk/a-profile-of-the-hebrides-revival-1949/>]

One night, one of the sisters had a vision. Now remember, in revival, God works in wonderful ways. A vision came to one of them, and in the vision she saw the congregation of her fathers crowded with young people.

That morning, one of the sisters said to the minister, "You must do something about it. And I would suggest that you call your office bearers together and that you spend with us at least two nights in prayer in the week.

Tuesday and Friday if you gather your elders together, you can meet in a barn - and as you pray there, we will pray here.

Well, that continued for some weeks--indeed, I believe almost a month and a half. One night a young man stood up and said, "It seems to me to be so much humbug to be praying as we are praying, to be waiting as we are waiting, if we ourselves are not rightly related to God. Ps 24

[This is taken from a recounting of the story by Duncan Campbell. I'm skimming through, but if you get the notes, you can go to the link and read the supernatural details.]

When that happened in the barn, the power of God swept into the parish. And an awareness of God gripped the community such as hadn't been known for over 100 years. An awareness of God-that's revival, that's revival. And on the following day, the looms were silent, little work was done on the farms as men and women gave themselves to thinking on eternal things gripped by eternal realities.

One of the sisters sent for the minister. And she said to him, "I think you ought to invite someone to the parish. I cannot give a name, but God must have someone in His mind for we saw a strange man in the pulpit, and that man must be somewhere.

Duncan Campbell came to the Hebrides and arrived in the evening. Went to a service that was supposed to be brief, but on exiting Six hundred people--where had they come from? What had happened? I believe that that very night God swept in Shavuot power--the power of the Holy Spirit.

And what happened in the early days of the apostles was happening now in the parish of Barvas.

Over 100 young people were at the dance in the parish hall and they weren't thinking of God or eternity. God was not in all of their thoughts. They were there to have a good night when suddenly the power of God fell upon the dance.

The music ceased and in a matter of minutes, the hall was empty. They fled from the hall as a man fleeing from a plague. And they made for the service. They are now standing outside.

[During one of the prayer meetings, there was an earth tremor.]

'Seventy-five percent (of the people) were gloriously saved before they came near a meeting..... the power of God was moving!'"

[Many stories of huge gatherings unadvertised, amazing responses to Yeshua.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Duncan\_Campbell\_\(revivalist\))]

You ask me, "What is the fruit of this type of movement?" Some little time ago the parish minister was asked to give a report in the record of the church of Scotland. He was asked to give a report on the fruit of the revival. Did they stand?

Any backsliding? Now this is what he wrote: "I will confine my remarks to my own parish--I will allow the other ministers to give their own reports. But let me speak of my own parish. In a certain village 122 young people found the faith and I'm not talking about middle age or the old.

They were wonderful, but I'm thinking about the young people. 122 all of them over the age of 17. They found the Savior during the first day of the revival.

[<http://www.revival-library.org/index.php/pensketches-menu/historical-revivals/the-hebrides-revival>]

Between 1949 and 1952 a wide spread revival swept through these islands in answer to the prayers of God's people. This revival became known as the Hebrides Revival.

The following is from George Whitten, Worthy News:

The New Testament records that when Yeshua died; there was a great earthquake and the veil of the Temple was torn in two. The size of this gigantic veil is not recorded in the NT... but we read from other sources that it was roughly 60 feet long and 30 feet wide with multiple woven layers the thickness of a man's hand! It was hung on a crossbeam stone – a lintel – which was over 30 feet long and weighed more than 30 tons! It was not an easy cloth to tear... Jerome, a fourth century Church Father, writes concerning the tearing of the veil, that not only was the veil torn, but the great earthquake had also caused the lintel of the Temple to be broken in two.

In fact, it seems that the breaking of the lintel was what caused the veil to be torn in half from top to bottom, since the veil hung down from the lintel.

In the culture of the Jewish people, a father will commonly mourn the loss of his son by rending or tearing his garment...Can we suggest that the rending of the Temple's veil likewise, dramatically expressed our Heavenly Father's agony over the death of Yeshua, His only begotten Son?

The way was prepared through the death of the Son of God for us to have access to the Holy of Holies, that place on earth which was prepared for the abiding Presence of God's Spirit, and, in earlier Temple times, actually contained His Glory

In the death of the Messiah Yeshua, every barrier and obstacle, even a 30 ton stone that needed to be broken – was removed, to make a way for us to have an intimate relationship with the Father!

The sound of ripping cloth, the rending of a massive veil, echoes throughout history to this very day. The agony of that sound of mourning opened for us "a new and living way which He consecrated for us, through the veil, that is, His flesh" [Hebrews 10:20]...

so that now, at any time, we can approach our Heavenly Father with boldness and confidence in His love and acceptance. As we embrace the sacrifice of Yeshua, come with a clean heart in His righteousness, we may fully expect His constant intervention and blessing in our everyday lives--- because the way has been permanently opened to us!
