In the ninth chapter of Ester, we read that our Jewish people celebrated victory over Haman's death plot by sending portions of food to each other.

In Proverbs 31 we also read that the woman of valor reaches out to the poor and needy.

It is a lovely custom at Purim to make up a Manot, a gift basket of food, and send it to someone in need or to someone you love. This symbolizes the gracious love of G-d who reaches out to mankind.
