MESSIANIC SYNAGOGUE

Ephesians 2.1-3 You were dead in your trespasses and sins. At that time, you walked in the way of this world, in conformity to the ruler of the domain of the air—the ruler of the spirit who is now operating in the sons of disobedience.

Ephesians 2.1-3 We too all lived among them in the cravings of our flesh, indulging the desires of the flesh and the mind. By nature we were children of wrath, just like the others.

notes

You were dead in your trespasses and sins.

- dead as to understanding, will, and affections, with respect to spiritual things,
- and as to capacity to do any thing that is spiritually good;

EL AL

Hoshea 11.7 My people are hanging in suspense about returning to me; and though they call them upwards, nobody makes a move.

וְאֵל-עַל יִקְרָאָהוּ

We MUST continually have Ruakh lift, or we sink back to death.

EL AL

What about babies, and small children?

What about people without the new birth, can they do any good?

Mtt 19.13-14 Then little children were brought to Yeshua so that He might lay hands upon them and pray. Then the disciples rebuked those who brought them. But Yeshua said, “Let the little children come to Me and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.”

Mt 18.10 “See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I tell you that their angels in heaven continually see the face of My Father in heaven.

Mt 18.10 “See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I tell you that their angels in heaven continually see the face of My Father in heaven.

Little children are intrinsically innocent and saved. How long, till what age?

Ro 7.9-10 I was once alive outside the framework of Torah. But when the commandment really encountered me, sin sprang to life, and I died.

Can people without the Spirit do anything good?

- Some are nicer by nature than others are by grace.

Can people without the Spirit do anything good?

- Some are nicer by nature than others are by grace.
- Eph 4.31-32 Get rid of all bitterness and rage and anger and quarreling and slander, along with all malice. Instead, be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving each other just as God in Messiah also forgave you.

Ephesians 2.1-3 We too all lived among them in the cravings of our flesh, indulging the desires of the flesh and the mind. By nature we were children of wrath, just like the others.

Acts 22.3 “I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city and trained at the feet of Gamli’el in every detail of the Torah of our forefathers. I was a zealot for God, as all of you are today.

Acts 23.1 Sha'ul looked straight at the Sanhedrin and said, "Brothers, I have been discharging my obligations to God with a perfectly clear conscience, right up until today."

Ro 7.7-8 The function of the Torah was that without it, I would not have known what sin is. For example, I would not have become conscious of what greed is if the Torah had not said, “Thou shalt not covet.” But sin, seizing the opportunity afforded by the commandment, worked in me all kinds of evil desires.

This is why the Torah has set up this time of year as a season of repentance, self examination, inner searching, getting right with others, seeking MORE Messiah-likeness: love, joy, shalom, Presence!!

Now till Yom Kippur...

1 Tim 1.15-16 So here is a statement you can trust, one that fully deserves to be accepted: the Messiah came into the world to save sinners, and I am the number one sinner! But this is precisely why I received mercy —

1 Tim 1.15-16 so that in me, as the number one sinner, Yeshua the Messiah might demonstrate how very patient he is, as an example to those who would later come to trust in him and thereby have eternal life.

Selikhot סְלִיחוֹת singular: סְלִיחָה selikhah are Jewish penitential poems and prayers, especially those said in the period leading up to the High Holidays, and on fast days. The Thirteen Attributes of Mercy are a central theme throughout these prayers.

Acts 26.17-18 I am sending you, to open their eyes—so they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of satan to God, that they may receive release from sins as well as a place among those who are made holy through trusting in Me.'

Eph 2.4-5 But God was rich in mercy, because of His great love with which He loved us. Even when we were dead in our trespasses, He made us alive together with Messiah. (By grace you have been saved!)

1 Yn 3.1 See how glorious a love the Father has given us, that we should be called God's children—and so we are! The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know Him.

All 15 justices of Israel's Supreme Court will hear the petitions asking them to cancel the "reasonableness law" that the Knesset passed last week, Supreme Court President Esther Hayut announced on Monday.

The hearing is scheduled for 10 a.m. on Sept. 12, three days before the start of the High Holidays. The government will have to file its response to the petitions 10 days earlier.

It will be the first time in the court's 75-year history that a panel of 15 justices will preside over a case.
